on Money Bill.

BOSTON, Oct. 9.—Atlanta this afternoon will win the race of sleeping best in the Atlanta, Boston, and Atlanta race to the Atlanta of 1914. Every good deed Atlanta is practically sure to be victim. Still the hopes of Atlanta, the only vigorous rival, die last, and as only death and taxes are absolutely certain, the vote at 2 o'clock is awaited with much anxiety. Atlantians are among the wheels of the association, and the members of the association are among the wheels of the money bill. Every important movement the bankers have under way, and this has kept Atlanta and its associations constantly in the mind of the revenue men.

John A. McCord, one of the two southern members of the association's currency commission, helped draft the report which brought the greenbackers into the race. The report, "imposing unfair hardships on the banks and equally unfair hardships on the general public." This severe condemnation of the greenbackers' currency program was adopted at the voice of the convention.

Frederick B. Parsons, secretary of the association, announced to-day that he and his colleagues in the association, having learned that the executive council would recommend Atlanta as the association's Atlanta to be chosen.

The recommendation of the executive council in past years has been rejected. The campaign being waged by delegates from Atlanta City and Atlanta, Ga., apparently has been abandoned.

Jules K. Powell, of Atlanta, who has dedicated his entire time to the campaign, will not be sententious in his judgment, but that Atlanta will be chosen. Secretary Farnsworth agrees with us from Georgia that Atlanta is the place.

In the meantime, the members of the Masonic Service and Trust Companies also are sure that Atlanta will be the winning convention city. They have made a canvas of several months, and are not certain that we will win easily. In fact, I believe that the opposition will amount gradually to nothing.

The features of the convention Wednesday are the presentation to the convention of resolutions drawn up by the currency commission. These resolutions, it is now denominated, the "Finance Committee,"

Finance Moses Sought.

H. T. Powell, of Macon, discussing the steps taken by the currency commission to secure the selection of a great majority of the delegates when he made the following statement to the Georgia representative to-day:

"The financial situation is very peculiar. We are in a bind and are in a bind. Just at present, so far as any satisfactory solution of the currency problem goes, And the sad part of it all is that there does not appear to be any way out. Moses in sight to lead us out of the wilderness into the promised land."

"What is needed is a man of great financial ability, in whom the people of the country have confidence. Moses. No such shining light appears in sight as yet. We are all looking for a great leader, a financial Moses."

"We think the world and all of Wilson down in Georgia, and we have

POSTPONEMENT IN FRANK CASE MADE CERTAIN

Letter From Dorsey Requests
Judge Roan to Let Arguments Go Over.

A letter received in Atlanta Thursday from Solicitor Dorsey made certain the postponement of arguments for a new trial for Leo M. Frank.

Those who have been heard Saturday by Judge Roan.

The letter informed the Solicitor and his assistant, A. E. Stephens, who are now in Valdosta, that the trial will be granted in accordance with his promise.

While the Solicitor is busily engaged reviewing the reasons of the defense, Frank's lawyers are seeking more witnesses who are said to have heard Hennessy and other jurors make remarks before the trial indicating their violent prejudice.

Pickpockets Get Rich
Haul at Five Points

City detectives began a vigorous search Thursday morning for pickpockets who robbed J. E. Chum, of Waltham, and M. B. Manning, of Atlanta, Saturday last. Wednesday evening near Five Points.

Chum lost a valuable watch, with a $5 goldpiece attached, while

Manning, minus $12, also checks for small amounts.

36 Reported Hurt
In Louisiana Wreck

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 9.—Thirty-six persons were injured, twelve seriously, to-day when a New Orleans and Natchez excursion train left the track near Wimahou.

The train was loaded with several hundred persons en route to a circus

at Natchez, Miss.

The solicitor who left Macon, A. E. Stephens, has been going over the voluminous amended motion of the defense with its 115 reasons for the trial since its filing last week by Frank's lawyers, ready to discuss the case except to express his confidence that a new trial will be denied. He stands firmly by the official decision that the defense is adequate grounds to ask for a new trial.

He and Attorney Stephens, institutes, arrive in Valdosta, where they will not be interrupted by office

visitors, have given their entire time to the preparation of their argument against any movement which will reopen the sensational murder case.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 9.—Drapers, shadow and slit shirts were condemned at a meeting of the executive board of the local Federation of Women's Clubs.

"The agents of the Devil," was the term applied to modern styles.

ROOF FALLS AS LAST BOARDER FLEES FIRE

Occupants of Hunter Street House Barely Escape Death.
Firemen Painfully Burned.

Occupants of Mrs. Sarah Freeman's boarding house at No. 231 East Hunter street narrowly escaped death in a fire which destroyed the upper story of the building Thursday morning and was forced to flee into the street in their night clothes. One man was severely injured.

The fire was discovered at 3 o'clock by Mrs. Olive McAllister, a daughter of Mrs. Freeman. She was awakened by the crackling of the flames. The whole house was alight when she was eating into the bedroom.

She awakened her husband and the two sons who were sleeping in the room.

He was forced to grasp a hot iron pipe to save himself from a moving roof.

The roof was torn off by the heat and the men fell to the ground.

The roof which fell on the house was destroyed and the lower floor was badly damaged by water.

The fire is thought to have been caused by rats igniting loose matches in a closet.

Tragedy Fails to End Beachey's Flying

HAMMONDSPORT, N. Y., Oct. 9.—

Lincoln Beachey will continue his career in aviation despite the accident which resulted in the death of one person and the injuring of three others.

He said to-day: "Of course this tragedy upset my plans, but I have not decided to give up flying."

ATLANTATO
GET BANK
MEETING
TO-DAY

Vote at 2 o'clock will clinch victory—Georgians lead attack on Money Bill.

BOSTON, Oct. 8.—Atlanta this afternoon will win the honor of playing host to the American Bankers Association in the autumn of 1914. Every conceivable Atlanta is practically set to be voter.

Atlanta is among the chief cities of the nation. They are among all the important moves the bankers have under way, and this kept Atlanta and its associations constantly in the mind of the convention.

Joseph A. McCord, one of the two Southern members of the association's currency commission, helped draft the report which branded the Greenback currency bill "socialistic" and "imposing undue hardships on the banks and endangering the financial stability of the country." The severe condemnation of the administration's monetary reform program was adopted as the vote of the convention.

Franklin E. Farnsworth, secretary of the association, announced to-day that he is satisfied the Georgia delegation will support the bill, and that the association will recommend to the convention that Atlanta be chosen.

Executive Council Govenor. The recommendation of the association to have Atlanta as the host city in 1914 has been accepted. The campaign being waged by delegates from Atlanta and Richmond, Va., apparently has been successful.

W. C. Ogle, of Atlanta, who has devoted his entire time to the campaign, said to-day: "There is no doubt in my mind but that Atlanta is the place. Franklin E. Farnsworth agrees with us from Georgia that Atlanta is the place."

H. T. Powell, president of the Georgia Savings Bank, Trust Company, said to-day that Atlanta will be the next convention city. He said: "I have made a canvas of several hundred delegates and they are all in favor of Atlanta. In fact, I believe that the opposition will amount to nothing."

The big feature of the convention will be the presentation of the convention of resolutions drawn up by the currency commission. These resolutions roundly denounced the Greenback currency bill.

FREES 1-HR.
BRIDE AS PARENTS OBJECT

Unique Testimony in an Unusual Divorce Case—Husband Attacked
by Parents.

One of the most unusual divorce cases in recent years, heard before Judge Ellis Thursday when Robert A. Harper testified that he had willingly relinquished his bride of an hour because the girl's parents thought it would be better if he had openly commended Harper for his course.

Judge Ellis' words are calculated to cause much joy among parents who are opposed to the love affairs of their children.

Mrs. Bertha Dickerson Harper, the plaintiff in the case, was given a first verdict for total divorce as a result of her husband's dubious "admission."

The case was perhaps one of the most interesting in the history of the Georgia State Bar and County courts.

The defendant, who is barely 23 years old, was ordered to take the stand to testify to the merit of his cause for all time.

Young Harper verified the arguments set forth by his youthful bride, who is very pretty, and told the court he had given up his bride to his parents from his wife immediately after the ceremony because of the opposition of the parents.

Conference Held. The separation was stated, followed a family conference held at the home of the girl's parents shortly after the ceremony had been performed.

Following the testimony of Harper, Judge Ellis, addressing the jury, commended the young man and his admirable stand, and said he did the right thing to yield to the wishes of the parents and leave his bride before further entanglements.

The two were married in March, 1893, with the consent of the girl's parents. Harper was represented by Attorney W. M. Smith.

May Be Invited to Speak in Atlanta

The Chamber of Commerce probably will extend an invitation to President Wilson an opportunity to speak for a few hours on his way to the Southern Commercial Congress at Mobile.

The President is due to pass through Atlanta on the afternoon of October 26, and it is hoped to get him to stop off here and deliver a short address and a few words of encouragement.

The board of directors of the Chamber will hold a meeting Thursday evening to consider the question of extending the invitation when it is taken up.

Speak in Atlanta

The Chamber of Commerce probably will extend an invitation to President Wilson an opportunity to speak for a few hours on his way to the Southern Commercial Congress at Mobile.

The President is due to pass through Atlanta on the afternoon of October 26, and it is hoped to get him to stop off here and deliver a short address and a few words of encouragement.

The board of directors of the Chamber will hold a meeting Thursday evening to consider the question of extending the invitation when it is taken up.

FIELD A PUDDLE OF MUD AND RAIN THREATENS AS THE THIRD GAME OPENS

struck him out on four pitched balls, if I remember rightly. And Major Callahan came pretty near when he returned the no-hitter.

That isn't Marquard out there on the mound. It certainly wasn't, especially in that ninth inning. I'll have to hand it to Matty. He's king of them yet, and his work in the ninth inning was excellent. He's a good pitcher, especially to me, on a baseball diamond.

Plank was mighty good, too, and you may remember that before ever a game was played I predicted that Plank would be the best pitcher against the Giants than Bender. That old cross-fire from the off-side is hard for any man to hit, and especially the Giants. Plank, in my opinion, showed as well against Bender, fanned three times yesterday. Plank getting him the last time ever after he was hit in the head, I think, is all that was needed.

I would like to say of Burdett that he certainly showed great class in his fielding yesterday, as well as the day before. He covered a lot of territory and made some great plays. Burdett looked to me like sure extra, have hits, getting the drives after wonderful springing.

That Ninth Inning!

But the real flash of the day was in the Athletics' half of the ninth inning. I would like to be a regular writer along enough to tell you more in about four minutes in that inning. Still, I don't know that would help very much. These are some things that don't seem to fit into words, and I can't make out or how good words you may have.

That work of Matty's in the ninth inning was one of those things. There was a lot of work done by the pitcher to be done. Here it was the last half of the ninth, on the enemy's home lot, with runners on second and third, only out, and the score 6 to 6. That's when it was drawn in, or for the only play made at the plate.

Anything that goes a run and gives the game, and probably the series, in Philadelphia, is a try, an error, a hit, a bit of fulfilling—for Amos Strunk was on third, and there isn't a faster man in the business than Amos.

Well, I'm no writer, as I said. But I have had something to do with baseball in my time, and you bet I know what Matty has done. I think, though I can't express it very well. There is a short word that I think Sherman used in talking about war which comes nearer than anything else to fitting the case.

'Joker' in Patent Law Can Cost Us Millions

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—A "joker" that cost eight American manufacturers millions of dollars has been discussed in the Kuhn-Rathbun bill, passed by Congress to protect patents on foreign exhibits at the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

The Patent Office department has withdrawn formal notification of the enactment of the law pending an effort to have it amended.

Engineers Say Dams Hurt River Traffic

COLUMBUS, Oct. 9.—The power dams across the Chattahoochee River are interfering with traffic because the river is the life of Government.

To reach a solution of the problem the owners of the dams have been summoned to a conference at the home of Edward Brown, United States Engineer of the Corps, now in New York.

ATHLETICS COME BACK AND WIN 3RD GAME

Mack's Men Ever Present With the Mighty Wallop, and Rout Ozarks Giant.

Sehans NO RUNS, NO HITS, NO ERRORS.

THIRD INNING. McInnis fouled off a couple of fast ones and then fanned. Two balls were wide of the plate, and then Bush hit a single to right. Bush singled again, and Murray failed to reach after a hard run, the hit going for a single. Murray flied to Shafey, and Doyle then drove in a run. ONE RUN, ONE HIT, NO ERRORS.

Merkle flied to Strunk, hitting the first pitch. Sehans hit out for his safety. He fanned off two balls and then fanned. With the count one and two, Herzog flied to Collins. NO RUNS, NO HITS, NO ERRORS.

FOURTH INNING. Schang fouled off a couple of fast ones and then fanned. Two balls were wide of the plate, and then Bush hit a single to right. Bush singled again, and Murray failed to reach after a hard run, the hit going for a single. Murray flied to Shafey, and Doyle then drove in a run. ONE RUN, ONE HIT, NO ERRORS.

Doyle watched a ball pass him, swinging twice, and then popped up a foul to Bush. Bush walked three balls and to Fletcher, who fanned over two strikes, after which Fletcher fanned into the grandstand. Then he singled over second. Burns fanned on three balls, hitting the ball. Fletcher stole second—the first stolen base of the series for the Giants. Then Collins fanned out. Shafey, NO RUNS, ONE HIT, NO ERRORS.

FIFTH INNING. Collins fouled off two and then flied to Murray. Baker hit a high foul to Pfeifer, and then three balls fanned to Murray. The game more looks like a regular pitcher. NO RUNS, NO HITS, NO ERRORS.

Bush was wild on three pitches and then struck out. The next pitch was wide and Murray walked. Murray stole second and went to third when Schang threw the ball to the center field, which fanned through Baker, scoring. Murray Cooper was sent in by Manager McGraw to run for McLean. Merkle missed a single, and then was high and far away to Murray. Doyle fanned off two high fast shots, waiting out a low curve on the next, and Cooper fanned around on the chuck. Tassie, the next man up, was who threw to McLean in time. Cooper hustling over to third on the play. Herzog hit over in front of the plate and getting three men out, ending the fifth. ONE RUN, ONE HIT, NO ERRORS.

SIXTH INNING.

Collins got out of the hole, after which he batted. McLean batted for an out. Bush fanned out. He fanned again and his first three pitches to Fletcher were wide.

He slipped over a strike, but Fletcher walked. The next one was wild and smashed the Giants' hopes by hitting into a double play. Bush to Collins—the first of fast dealing. NO RUNS, ONE HIT, NO ERRORS.

Bush got Doyle in the hole, after which he batted. McLean batted for an out. Bush fanned out. He fanned again and his first three pitches to Fletcher were wide.

Murphy flied to Bush, who stopped on the foul line and fanned out. Schang fanned to Herzog. It was a wild inning. TWO RUNS, NO HITS, NO ERRORS.

SEVENTH INNING.

Aft two balls and a strike had been called on Eddie Murphy, he ticked off a first one for a single to right. With the count one and two, Bush hit to Fletcher, and Murphy was forced to Doyle. Collins hit a foul into the grandstand. He fanned off two balls and then fanned into the grandstand.

He fanned off two balls and a strike, which he could not reach and wouldn't try. The next pitch was wide, and then Collins struck off right. Doyle fanned. Bush fanned over with a single, and then Doyle to center, scoring Eddie, and the game resembled a practice contest.

Turner was extracted from the game because of his shoulder, and the official relief batter, who was to the mound, McInnis ended the game with a line to Doyle, dyne with Bush. Bush fanned out. Larry fanned Frank as he came tearing down the line. TWO RUNS, ONE HIT, NO ERRORS.

With two strikes on him, Bush hit a screaming double to left—the first real wallop off Bush. With the count two and two, Murray singled to right. Bush fanned out. The next pitch was wide, and then Bush fanned out. Schang to Collins. Merkle drew a base on balls and White ran for him. Bush fanned out. White was out at first. ONE RUN, TWO HITS, NO ERRORS.

RICHMOND WINS 1914 MEETING OF BANKERS

Atlanta Loses in Gallant Fight for Honor of Entertaining Nation's Financiers.

BOSTON, Oct. 8.—Richmond, Va., won the 1914 convention of the American Bankers' Association this afternoon, Atlanta losing the honor of entertaining the delegates after a hard fight.

Atlanta's representatives had worked day and night for the convention since the sessions began in Boston this week and the grandsons had apparently been favored to the Georgia city. The claims of Richmond, however, were regarded as the strongest when they were put forward to the bankers a number of the leading citizens.

The Atlanta delegates, while disappointed at the outcome of the highly contested fight, nevertheless accepted their defeat gracefully and added to their congratulations of the victors the announcement that they would be the hosts next year.

Joseph A. McCord, one of the two Southern members of the association's currency commission, helped draft the report which branded the Owen-Glass currency as "unwise" and "imposing unfair hardships on the banks and equally unsafe handicapping on the general public." This report came out when the administration's monetary reform program was adopted as the voice of the convention.

The first feature of the convention Wednesday was the presentation to the convention of resolutions drawn up by the currency commission. These resolutions clearly denounced the Owen-Glass currency.

Financial Moles Caught.

H. T. Powell, of Macon, discussing the steps taken by the currency commission, voted in favor of a great measure of the delegates when he made the following statement to the Georgian representative to-day:

"The financial situation is very perplexing. We are in a bind in a wilderness just as present so far as any satisfactory solution of the currency problem goes. And the sad part of it is that there does not appear to be a way out."

Lead us out of the wilderness into the promised land.

It was noted that Powell is a man of great financial ability, in whom the people of the country have unlimited confidence. No such shining light appears in sight as yet. We are all looking for a great leader, a financial Moses.

"We think the world and all of Wilson down in Georgia, and we have confidence in his honesty and sincerity. He is a great man, a statesman and a historian. Yet President Wilson is not a great financier. And a financier is what the bankers are looking for."

Need Bankers' Backing.

The people with whom I am acquainted haven't the confidence in President Wilson's financial policies that I have. I am not in a bind in a wilderness just as present so far as any satisfactory solution of the currency problem goes. And the sad part of it is that there does not appear to be a way out."

Opposing him will be the incumbents, who are bound to him by rumors of his personal and financial success.

Although Wilson is the great majority in the present form because it is opposed by the great majority of the country.

The intention of the bill is of the best.

It aims to make possible in a clause currency. Should we do this, it would be a great experiment at best. The question is, "Is it intended by it to do just the things that are intended by it?" It is no time to daily think of experiments. We want certainty.

"This currency problem is too big a thing to risk a failure in. We must know how it is going to work out before we risk it."

MERKLE SCORING FIRST RUN OF THE GAME FOR THE GIANTS.

Fred Merkle, the Giants' first baseman, is shown above registering the initial tally of the World's Series in the third inning. Captain Larry Doyle brought Merkle home with a single to right after the New York first-sacker got on first through an error by Barry.

"HOME RUN" BAKER BEING THROWN OUT AT THIRD BASE.

This play occurred in the fourth inning. Baker brought in Collins by knocking out a single. Stuffy Melvin sacrificed the home-run hit to second, but when he tried to take third on Strunk's hot smash, Marquard tossed to Herzog, who is shown tagging him out.

and honest in his honesty and sincerity. He is a great man as a scholar and a historian. Yet President Wilson is a great leader. And in his speech is what the bankers are looking for.

Need Bankers' Backing. The people with whom I am associated are the bankers in Atlanta. President Wilson's financial policies are a prerequisite to their success. Any currency legislation must effect the same. The bankers have the cooperation of the bankers, with whom the repudiation of the ready money of the country is to be like the enactment of a pro-McKinley tariff. The bankers are the ones who can not make such an enactment unless you have the people behind you. The Owen-Glass currency bill can not be a howling success in its present form because it is against posed by the great majority of the leaders of the country.

The inventing of the bill is of the best. It aims to make possible an elastic currency. Should it do this, it would prevent panics.

Will U. S. S. Georgia.

Headed by Alexander, the president of the American National Bank of Macon, the Georgians paid a visit to the Charleston Navy Yard to inspect the gunboats aboard the battleship Georgia.

This currency problem is too big to risk a failure in. We must know how it is going to work out before we risk it.

Bankers' Delegation.

"I am probably the oldest banker in the State of Georgia, and have been in the banking business for 40 years. I have been through the banks already, and I hesitate to say anything that might precipitate an- other one. Young men are more reckless and cost a great deal more to handle, and the young are. What would the Government do for money if it couldn't sell its bonds?"

The present currency bill should become a law. I imagine the Government would have a hard time dispening of its 2 and 3 cent bonds. Under the new law, the banks would want to buy them, and the young are. What would the Government do for money

JACKSON SCORES BLALOCK FOR INTERVIEW

Former Revenue Collector Declares His Successor Is Either Ignorant or Has Falsified.

Charging that A. O. Blalock has not been selected of Internal Revenue, in place to him by political rotors, Henry S. Jackson, in a letter to The Georgian, asserted that he planned statements concerning Jackson's administration of the office and his alleged discrimination in favor of the negro. Jackson declares that the negroes employed in the Internal Revenue Department were "political negroes and colored a large portion of the negroes in the national convention are absolutely false. In his letter he says:

"I have nothing to do with Mr. Blalock's political policies, with his views and efforts to remove negro watchmen and telegraph men from their positions in order that he may appoint negroes to political offices and friends to all those jobs."

Statement Failed.

"I desire to say that if Mr. Blalock selected that I have ever had assistance in any way, in favor of negroes in any appointments I made while Collector or Custodian, he placed with me was absolutely false, and he has no right to either ignore or disregard the record of facts."

It is correctly reported in saying that there was $100,000 a year paid to negroes under my administration of the office, and that negroes and white men were forced to accept work suitable for the negro only. I desire to say that the negroes in the office of the collector and custodian are absolutely untrue. At no time during my administration did either of these two offices receive any negroes under me as Collector or as Custodian, or receive any negroes, large or small, for me at the national convention or elsewhere."

The Services.

"The men Mr. Blalock is now trying to remove were in the service of the nation, and to remove them is a crime. When I took control, I found the records bad, and when I removed them, the charges were performed their work faithfully and well. They are to be commended for the performance of the Civil Service and the appointing officer or head of a department can not remove any employee without charges preferred and substantiated."

Perhaps Mr. Blalock will be able to change all this, and so able to do that it will be necessary to compensate men who are supposed to be under him. The Civil Service and the Civil Service, and further he may arrange to have the compensation only to him and not to any other. I will change the entire policy of the commission, and the entire policy of the Congress, in order that he may carry out the policy he has declared would be carried out."

"In conclusion I desire to say that while the negroes in the office of the collector and custodian were sent from Washington at certain intervals, both from the office of the collector and the office of the custodian, the collector and the custodian reported to me as being competent men, and that the performance of the performance of them, and the building up of the office of the collector and the force under me, always received a rating of first class from these two offices. I have no record that did not prove Mr. Blalock's assertions that incompetent men were retained."

Hooper in Memphis To Urge 'Dry' Laws

MEMPHIS, Oct. 9.—Governor Ben W. Hooper is here to-day to address a meeting of the temperance league which will adopt measures asking for the passage of probation law enforcement bill at the special session.

The mass meeting is preliminary to special services in the Protestant church to be held at 8 o'clock to-morrow night at Corinth, Miss., for interment.

The party made the tour of the guests of Councilman Ashley in an automobile.

"I am inclined to believe that most of the trouble is due to the fact that we have no police force of our own," he said.

"I am inclined to believe that the overseers are not bad as it has been pictured. The greatest trouble seems to me to be in the districting of the city. There doesn't seem to be much difference in the division of the police among the schools."

Would Remodel Buildings.

Mayor Woodward's idea of having $100,000 spent on remodeling old buildings is to give relief for the next year.

He said he will advocate an appropriation for this purpose before the new Council.

Members of the Council have become much interested in the situation, and a special committee to investigate conditions probably will be appointed.

Those who are members of the Council are inclined to believe that they are powerless to do much before the first of the year, but that they will seek funds that they are determined to do.

They are to present their program among Atlanta school children from bad buildings and overcrowded conditions.

School Heads Blame Council.

The school authorities did not feel that the Council had to be concerned on account of a lack of funds.

They said the Council's action in the matter and others assert that when the Council was making up the budget for the school year it had no money for larger appropriations and that the reason for the lack of money is the bad condition of the buildings.

There is a growing disposition on the part of a number of Councilmen to do something for the schools.

The first step will be to make a formal investigation.

They will take up the matter of school buildings and other matters of control.

Here Is a Graphic Picture of Muscle, Not Man

Very Fine Muscle. But You Need Not Envy It. The Thinking Machine in Your Head Is the Power That Drives. Muscle Counts No Longer.

(Copyright, 1913.)

This is a picture for young men who read the sporting page and envy the muscles of fighters, wrestlers and others to think about.

This picture is supposed to represent the most splendidly muscled man in all Germany, the king of the gymnasts in a nation whose "Turn-Versus" produce the best gymnasts of the world.

Young artists are gathered about him in this picture, admiring and envying. They pay him well for the right to use him as a model, but, young men of Atlanta and the rest of the United States, DON'T USE HIM AS A MODEL.

The muscle on his arm, displayed so proudly, is magnificent. It would be splendidly in place on a cart horse or a coal heaver. But you who are competing in the American game of life do not want to be cart horses or coal heavers.

This young man has magnificently developed legs and shoulders. He can stand without flinching and carry a ton weight or more, so powerfully muscled and fortified is his backbone.

The muscles across his stomach are like bands of steel. He can make them nearly as rigid as iron, so that they could stand a blow from a hammer.

If he shakes hands with you and forgets himself, he returns your hand bruised and aching—all very fine, BUT LOOK AT THE BACK OF HIS HEAD.

If this young muscular giant could exchange that round lump on his arm for a similar round lump filled with brain tissue at the back of his skull, he would be driving and directing 10,000 men, perhaps, instead of posing and wriggling his muscles to amuse a few artists, who pay him a few dollars a day as a model while his muscle and his youth last.

This is an interesting picture, with a useful lesson to all young men.

Do not despise muscle, and do not worship it.

Don't worry whether the machine in which your brain lives can lift a thousand pounds or two hundred, run a hundred yards in ten seconds or fifteen.

Be content to keep your body, through which your intellect works, ABSOLUTELY HEALTHY, whether the muscles be big or little.

Get this formula fixed in your mind.

Your brain depends on the blood that fills it and lends it vitality.

Your blood depends on a constant supply of pure air, plenty of oxygen, moderate exercise, causing metabolism—which is changing of tissue and getting rid of poisons—AND UPON ALL THE FOOD THAT YOU EAT.

Brain and blood depend upon your nerves, mysterious carriers of force regulating every function of the body, controlling the feeding and the breathing of the thousands of millions of separate cells of which your body is composed.

Your nerves depend upon GOOD LIVING, GOOD MORAL CONDUCT, plenty of sleep, sobriety, freedom from poisoning by alcohol and nicotine.

Take care of your blood for the sake of your brain.

Take care of your body, your stomach and your breathing for the sake of your blood.

Take care of your nerves, the electric forces of your body.

Live like a self-respecting, moral, self-controlled man—and you will take care of the entire complicated machine "fearfully and wonderfully made"—which is yourself.

Let him have the big muscles, the high jumping record, the peculiar and utterly useless power for pitching a baseball, or making a pool ball drop into a pocket.

Only one thing counts IN YOU. That is activity, noble aspiration and a good blood supply within "that ivory temple," your skull, the palace of the really you.

Better arms and legs like match sticks, a feeble back that must be sewed in a canvas sack each day and the brain of Pope, who wrote the "Essay on Man," than all the muscles of this fine young German giant, whose biceps stick out like the forehead of a genius and whose back head is as flat as his thoughts probably are.

BE YOU A THINKER.

A New World and a Better One?

According to a noted French scientist, Jupiter is preparing to throw off a new world. Of course, this promised addition to our solar system may not make its advent for a million or so years, but it furnishes a topic for speculation. What chiefly concerns us is:

What is this new world to be, morally and ethically?

Will human inhabitants, should there be any, be thirty feet tall and have heads like elephants, or will they conform to the dimensions of the marmoset?

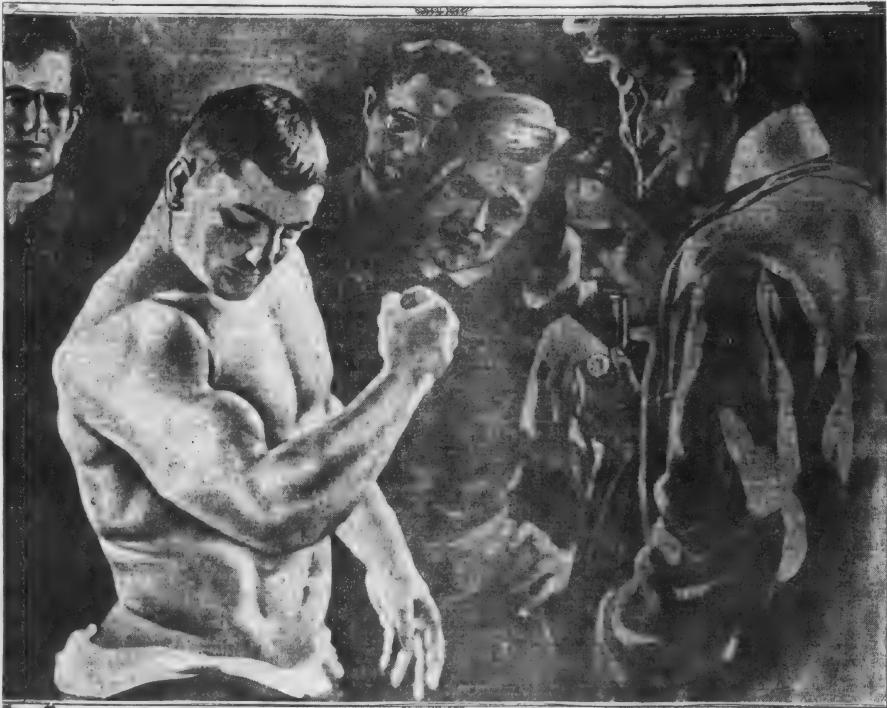

Will this world have airships, subways and militant suffragettes, or will the people be drowsy-eyed savages, living in caves and forests?

Will there be slit skirts, radium gowns for women and pink tea for highly perfumed poodles, or will the spirit of Mother Eve abide that women may be content to do their afternoon calling in the radiant raiment of her day?

Are there to be Tammany Halls and Huertas and the eternal Balkan uprising, or is it, after all, to be a place where Mr. Carnegie may erect his peace temple without feeling the necessity of fortifying it with fourteen-inch guns?

If this new world is to be no improvement on the new one we now inhabit, it ceases to be of more than passing interest to most of us.

The Muscle Man--Don't Envy Him

He admires himself, and the foolish young men share his admiration. It would be better for him if he could move that lump from his arm to the back of his head. (See editorial.)

Gospel of Play

From EDWIN MARKHAM.

We have long heard the gospel of work, and now comes the equally valid gospel of play. "The Church and the Young Man's God" is the title of a book from Doran's, written by F. J. Milner, president of the National Indoor Game Association.

The craving for amusement," says Karl Gross, in "The Play of Man," "is as fundamental and irrepressible as the craving for food and sleep."

We come into the world with two primary instincts, hunger and playfulness. Which antedates the other is not certain. But in the course of human evolution the exercise of the game-impulse has had a large co-ordination between man's physical and mental nature, and this co-ordination, or, more specifically, the subjection of the body to human evolution—furnishes the basis of man's play instinct.

"A prompt, muscular response to volition is the basis of self-control, and self-control is the basis of play," says Karl Gross.

That is to say, games are a preparation for life. Long prior to when the child gets his elementary ideas of form and color, cause and effect, pain and pleasure, as well as his sense of relation, he begins to play, and thereby through play, assimilates the exercise of life.

He begins to play, and thus refines his play instinct, which is a proof that she does not really love and trust him, but she doubts his honor and his word.

He begins to play, and thus engrossed people regard the master from his standpoint, and that her conduct is prudish and silly.

He begins to play, and thus men are to be found who are

It is their method of testing the weaker sex.

In the United States, in many countries, when American girls are unchaperoned and unprotected, and allowed to go about with their admirers.

A lotus-eater of this order is almost infrequently able to engage several trusting virgins at one time, under strict vows of secrecy and silence, to stand by him.

These girls are almost invariably demands the full confidence and proof of "love and trust," as he terms it, of each of his victims.

And, as a rule, he never marries any one of them.

MYSTERY BOAT FOUND ADRIFT ON SEAS

Power Yacht, Finely Furnished, No One Aboard, Discovered Off Frying Pan Shoals.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 8.—A mystery of the sea was brought to power by Captain Pratt, of the Merchants and Miners' steamer Summered from New York. While the steamer was northbound by east from Frying Pan Shoals, lightship Monday evening a boat was seen adrift, which was reported by the lookout.

Captain Pratt went to it, but found it was empty. The boat bore the name "Winneshiek, of Baltimore," an Iowa river boat. It had a cabin, but no one on board, nothing missing and the engine was in order. A line was secured fast to the boat.

Somerset set out.

He said he thought that night the line parted and the yacht went adrift.

He said to day: "Of course this tragedy upsets my plans, but I have not decided to give up flying."

DALTON CAMPAIGN OPENS.

DALTON, Oct. 9.—The campaign for city offices was formally opened to-day by the Democratic candidate, John C. Smith, railway conductor, or Council from the Fourth Ward. The election is scheduled for December 15.

ECZEMA LOOKED AWFUL ON FACE

Started with Watery Pimplies Itched and Burned Badly. Awful. Sore. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Buy Now Well.

R. F. D. No. 2. Frederick Hall, Va. My little son was very bad off with the eczema on his face. He started with watery pimples and it itched and burned so much that he wanted to scratch it all the time and he made an awful mess of it. I used Cuticura Soap and hold his hands a lot of the time to keep him from scratching. He had a lot of eczema, but it was not very serious.

I was afraid it would last forever. I took him to a doctor and he said "I'll get you a prescription of Cuticura Soap and Ointment" and sent me a twenty-five cent can of Cuticura Soap and a fifty cent box of Cuticura Ointment.

I only used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment and it cleared up in a short time.

I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Mrs. Kate B. Pleasant, Dec. 15, 1912.

Although the Cuticura Soap and Ointment are most successful in the treatment of afflictions of the skin, scalp, hair and hands, they are equally good for the day use in the toilet, bath and nursery, because they promote and maintain the health of the skin, scalp, hair and hands. The Cuticura Soap (5c) and Cuticura Ointment (25c) are sold every where. Liberal samples of either may be had by sending a post card to Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston.

Men who shave shampoos with Cuticura Soap will find it to be far and scalp.

SIDE LIGHTS ON GEORGIA POLITICS

By JAMES B. NEVIN

Superintendent H. S. Bowden, of Decatur, however, Much of the ma-blized, the well-known educator, has announced himself a candidate for State school Commissioner, to succeed the present commissioner, M. L. Britton.

Professor Bowden will be one of the most popular speakers in Georgia, printed by the State, to be furnished the children at cost.

John Marshall Slaton threw several

ecstatic fits into the proprietor of a

Greek restaurant on Atlanta street.

Tuesday, when he walked in quietly,

the restaurant was written,

the greatest industrial army in the country, perhaps the highest standard

of efficiency in the business world.

"Well," said the boss, in an awed

tone, "you are the best of the best

in America."

Professor Bowden will be one of the most popular speakers in Georgia, printed by the State, to be furnished the children at cost.

John Marshall Slaton threw several

ecstatic fits into the proprietor of a

Greek restaurant on Atlanta street.

Tuesday, when he walked in quietly,

the restaurant was written,

the greatest industrial army in the

country, perhaps the highest standard

of efficiency in the business world.

"Well," said the boss, in an awed

tone, "you are the best of the best

in America."
